

Credence Independent Advisors: Financial Planning

Most of our clients are expatriates living in favourable tax jurisdictions, but this will not be the case for all of them forever. Our advisors will always ensure that our clients are in the most favourable tax positions possible when returning to their homeland or their next overseas destination. We have a thorough understanding of how trust structures may benefit you and have access to estate planning tools to ensure that your money remains where you want it. We are experts in expatriate clients and will know or find the right solutions to ensure your financial planning puts you in the driving seat with your money.
